PLAINTIFFS' UNOPPOSED MOTION TO DEFER OR CONTINUE TRIAL

1. Undersigned counsel represents the plaintiff, Henry Watkins.
2. Undersigned counsel submits this Unopposed Motion to Defer or Continue Trial based on his failing health in the advanced stages of prostate cancer.
3. Undersigned counsel has been placed in an experimental drug trial at Memorial Sloan-Kettreing Cancer Center in New York.
4. This experimental treatment was necessary because the cancer failed to respond to chemotherapy.
5. Undersigned counsel's present condition is such that he is unable to conduct a trial.
6. Undersigned counsel's condition has deteriorated in the past 30 days and it is hoped that his condition will be alleviated by the new treatment which just began such that he will be able to conduct trial in ninety (90) days.

7. There is no other attorney available in undersigned counsel's office to conduct the trial.

8. Yesterday, August 30, 2007, undersigned counsel's office spoke to Gino J. Benedetti, Esquire who does not oppose this motion.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs' request that trial be continued for ninety (90) days along with all pending deadlines.
